

Dr. Bhagwan Koirala

Specialization: Cardiac Surgery

Years of Experience: 35+ years

Education: MBBS, MS (General Surgery), MCh (Cardiothoracic Surgery)

Current Position: Chief Cardiac Surgeon at BP koirala Memorial Hospital

Professional Summary

Dr. Bhagwan Koirala is a highly respected cardiac surgeon known for his dedication to improving cardiac care in Nepal and South Asia. With over three decades of experience in cardiac surgery, he has performed thousands of complex heart surgeries, including bypass surgery, valve repair, and congenital heart defect corrections.

Dr. Koirala's contributions extend beyond the operating room. He has played a key role in establishing cardiac care facilities and training programs in Nepal, making world-class cardiac treatment accessible to the local population.

Clinical Achievements

- Performed the first open-heart surgery in Nepal.
- Developed cardiac surgery training programs for young surgeons.
- Published multiple research papers in peer-reviewed international journals.
- Introduced minimally invasive cardiac surgery techniques in Nepal.

Qualifications

- MBBS – Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (Tribhuvan University, Nepal)
- MS in General Surgery – Postgraduate specialization in general surgery
- MCh in Cardiothoracic Surgery – Super-specialization in cardiac and thoracic surgery
- Fellowships & Advanced Training – Multiple fellowships and training programs in advanced cardiac surgery abroad (e.g., Canada, USA, and other reputed institutions)
- Research & Academic Contributions – Published research papers in international journals on cardiac surgery and healthcare systems
- Teaching & Mentorship – Professor and mentor to postgraduate students and young cardiac surgeons in Nepal

Available Locations

- Shahid Gangalal National Heart Centre (SGNHC), Kathmandu
- Tribhuvan University Teaching Hospital (TUTH), Maharajgunj
- Manmohan Cardiothoracic Vascular and Transplant Center (MCVTC), Kathmandu

Experience

- Chief Cardiac Surgeon, Shahid Gangalal National Heart Centre (SGNHC) – 2001–Present
- Senior Professor & Cardiac Surgeon, Tribhuvan University Teaching Hospital (TUTH) – 1990–Present
- Head of Department, Manmohan Cardiothoracic Vascular and Transplant Center (MCVTC) – 2008–2014
- Executive Director, Shahid Gangalal National Heart Centre (SGNHC) – 2001–2009
- Visiting Faculty & Cardiac Surgeon, International Collaborations (India/Canada) – Various Years

Professional Contributions

Dr. Koirala has been a pioneer in cardiac healthcare development in the Himalayan region. He has conducted numerous workshops and seminars for medical professionals, focusing on advancing cardiac surgery techniques, patient safety, and post-operative care.

He has served as an advisor to the Ministry of Health on cardiac healthcare policy and has helped implement national cardiac screening programs. Dr. Koirala is also a founding member of several cardiac societies and professional associations.

elevated the standard of cardiac surgery techniques, patient safety protocols, and post-operative care practices among medical professionals in Nepal and beyond.

As an advisor to the Ministry of Health, Dr. Koirala has played a pivotal role in shaping national cardiac healthcare policies. His efforts have led to the implementation of nationwide cardiac screening programs, enabling early detection and treatment of heart conditions. Additionally, as a founding member of several cardiac societies and professional associations, he has fostered collaboration and knowledge-sharing among cardiac care professionals in South Asia.

Awards and Honors

- National Health Award – Government of Nepal: Recognized for his outstanding contributions to healthcare development in Nepal.
- Lifetime Achievement Award in Cardiac Surgery – South Asian Medical Council: Honored for his lifelong dedication to advancing cardiac surgery.
- Recognition for Excellence in Teaching and Training – Cardiac Surgery Institute: Acknowledged for his mentorship and training initiatives that have shaped future cardiac surgeons.

Personal Philosophy

Dr. Koirala believes that every patient deserves quality care regardless of financial or geographic barriers. He emphasizes mentorship, research, and innovation in cardiac surgery to ensure the next generation of surgeons can continue his legacy of excellence.

Memberships

- Nepal Medical Association – Life member since 1990
- Society of Cardiac Surgeons of Nepal – Life member since 1995